

Little Hands On Rhythm® – Activity Games

... a fun educational resource for rhythm notation.

View this email in your browser

Teaching students the concepts of rhythm notation can be challenging. Little Hands On Rhythm®- Activity Games helps teachers meet that challenge and ensure student success. This tactile product allows teachers to incrementally introduce note and rest values, time signatures, bar lines, and counting numbers and apply this knowledge by playing fun rhythm games.

The games focus on rhythm recognition, problem solving, rhythm dictation and memory to help students hone their rhythm skills. Little Hands On Rhythm® Activity Games comes with 112 Magnetic Manipulatives, a Tri-Fold magnetic board, a Time Tree and instructions for five rhythm games. Challenging Extension Packages for advanced students are also available on our website.

Example of Extension Packages

Advantage for teachers:

- ♪ Magnetic manipulatives and board can be used at the front of the classroom or as a music centre. No writing on the board with chalk required.
- ♪ The manipulatives offer easy interaction for both teachers and students
- ♪ Contents are conveniently housed for easy set-up and clean up.

The Primer Kit is a perfect tool to teach rhythm notation to lower elementary students. It will begin to prepare students for more advance rhythm reading introduced in upper elementary grades.
