

November 3 - 5, 2022 in
Blue Mountain, Ontario

FRIDAY EVENING CONCERT SCHEDULE

8:00 pm TWIN FLAMES

8:30 pm DJ DIRECTOR

9:00 pm MY SON THE HURRICANE

Twin Flames

Building bridges across cultures, continents, and styles, Twin Flames, brings together a richness of personal history and musical experience. Their songs tell stories of courage and survival written in English, Inuttitut, and French. Multi-Award-Winning chart-topping Canadian Indigenous Duo Twin Flames are a husband-wife team made up of Jaaji, (Inuk and Mohawk) from Nunavik and Chelsey June, métis (Algonquin Cree heritage). Honouring their ancestor's history and representing their Indigenous backgrounds. Twin Flames have become a beloved powerhouse couple.

DJ Director

Born in Guyana, Joseph immigrated to Canada at a young age in December 1991. Founder of Math Thru Music, he has well over a decade of experience creating and implementing youth engagement strategies. Through his strong leadership skills, tens of thousands of young people have been positively affected. He has initiated high-level partnerships with police services, community partners, school boards and large corporations.

Joseph has hands-on experience with program creation, facilitation and administration. His innovation and dedication has been highly sought after and complete with accolades such as a 2016 Inspirational Award, 2017 Top 40 Under 40 Leadership Award and most recently a 2020 Business Excellence Award.

Mr. Khargie is a doer and has a passion for helping young people find their purpose.

My Son the Hurricane

My Son the Hurricane is a multi horn, multi drummer, multi singer brass funk beast. The Niagara, Ontario 12 piece brass-dance crew has toured over multiple countries and some of Canada, USA and Europe's biggest festivals. Over 40 sold out shows in 2019 and early 2020 just proved that there is no live show like My Son the Hurricane. Featuring trumpets, sax, trombones, drums, guitar, percussion and two wild front- people... we dare you not to dance! In 2022 the band will take on a 65 date Canada and Europe wide tour.

